IMPORTANT NOTICE

My practice in Durbanville will reopen on the 3rd of June 2024. I enjoyed my travels and I am glad to be back at work.

Kindly note that I will no longer do any assessments. I will only see pre-school and primary school children for individual therapy (for 30 minutes) and their parents/guardians for parental guidance (for 20 minutes, before or after the child's session). The amount of therapy sessions required could vary from 3 to 8 sessions (depending on the problem).

I am excited to announce that we have moved to an online booking system.

Allowing parents to easily book a time that suits their schedule (subject to availability).

No appointments need to be made by telephone anymore and only online bookings are accepted. Parent(s) can now easily book, manage and pay for sessions online.
